

3 THIRTYTHREE

A Student Publication of Trevecca Nazarene University campus weekly

THIS week

March 24-30
1999

FRONT & center

W24 Roundtable - 9pm JSC Lobby

Th25 SGA Election Chapel
Polls open on ICE at 11:30
When In Rome...
Madrigalian Dinner
6:30pm TSAC Student Tickets $10

F26 Ethnic & Cultural Student Affairs
Club meeting
10:30am Tidwell 2nd floor Conf.
Madrigalian Dinner
6:30pm TSAC
Baseball hosts David Lipscomb
2:30pm

S27 Madrigalian Dinner
12 noon TSAC
Baseball hosts David Lipscomb
12noon
Softball hosts Freed Hardeman
12noon
Jr/Sr Banquet
6:30 pm - Union Station

T30 Class and Residence Hall Councils
petitions available - JSC
Softball hosts Lipscomb
2:00pm - Music City
Baseball hosts Bethel
12noon
Trevecca Civic Chorale Concert
7:30pm - Wakefield Auditorium

Wside

1998-99 ASB
Election Guide

Reviews:
Shakespeare In Love,
Buck

Lent: Tracing the Tradition

Jessica Tyler
Feature Editor

Lent, the forty days which lead up to Easter, is an observance that many Christians value. The word Lent comes from a variety of Anglo-Saxon and Germanic words meaning spring, which is a time of renewal. For Christians, Lent is not a celebration of nature, but a process of prayer and spiritual renewal. It is typically known as the time when people give something up, but there is much more to Lent than this simple tradition.

Originally, in the first century, Lent was observed as a forty hour period, in honor of the forty hours that Jesus' body was in the tomb. In the third century, this evolved into the six days of Holy Week, and then grew to thirty-six days. Finally, during the reign of Charlemagne in the eighth century, four days were added to create the celebration that we have today.

Lent, beginning on Ash Wednesday, is a time of preparation, penitence, and for special prayer. The season is set aside for Christians to examine themselves and reflect upon their relationship with God. It is a time of fasting and self-denial as one considers the suffering and sacrifice that Christ made when He died. The discipline of giving something up is to strip away the things that clutter one's life and take away from time that could be spent in prayer.

Many spend extra time in prayer during Lent. The traditional symbol for this special prayer is the pretzel. This originated when fifth century Christians mixed together dough, salt, and water, which they shaped into the form of two crossed arms to remind themselves to pray. They first called this product little arms or braccellae, and later began to call it brezel or pretzel. The pretzel was only eaten during the season of Lent, as a reminder to pray.

Many members of the Trevecca community have chosen to observe Lent, and have given up things such as a favorite food or activity in order to spend more time focusing on God, praying, or reading the Bible. David and Summer Kemp have given up watching television. "It's something that we love to do, and we gave it up because Jesus gave up his life for us," explained Summer, who also gave up sweet tea. The couple has spent the extra time reading or just having some quality time together.

Lent will come to a close on Easter Sunday, as the world celebrates the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

New Degree for Fall 99

Beginning this fall, the newly formed Social and Behavioral Sciences department will be offering a new BS in Social Science. The new degree will allow students concentrations in social work, criminology, and family studies. Interested students should see an advisor in the Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences. Pre-registration for classes related to the new major is currently open.

TNU Music Department Presents:

When In Rome...

7th annual Madrigalian Dinner

March 25,26,&27 TSAC
$15 adult $10 student

Limited tickets still available. Call ext.1288 for reservations today!

3THIRTYTHREE

Needs You!

We are currently looking for

Catwalk Writers
Editorials

Feature Writers
Entertainment Writers

333 please email

3THIRTYTHREE for more information

333 campus & COMMUNITY

1999-2000 ASB Election Guide

Get to know the candidates who want to represent you as YOUR 1999-2000 Associated Student Body officers. Make sure to check out their speeches in chapel on Thursday, March 25. Polls open on ICE on Thursday at 11:30. Your vote counts!

President

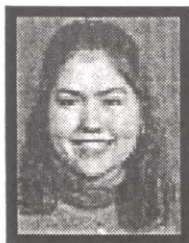

Andrew Arp
Hometown:
Rossville, GA
Major:
Biology/
Pre-Med

Vision: "To involve students as a whole in making Trevecca an enjoyable experience"

Qualifications: "I have held a position on SGA, and I feel very qualified as being a leader. For the most part, I deal with people well."

Favorite part of TNU: "The people, students, and faculty. That sounds corny, but it's true."

Favorite Quote: "The unexamined life is not worth living" - Socrates

Megan Hanks
Hometown:
Charlotte, NC
Major:
Interpersonal
Communications

Vision: "To expand the responsibility of the position by incorporating more students and more school spirit in all SGA activities."

Qualifications: Freshman Class Chaplain, Sophomore Rep., Academic, Spiritual Life, & Publicity Committees.

Favorite Part of TNU: "The students and the spirit they bring to campus."

Favorite Quote: "God loves us the way we are, but He loves us too much to let us stay that way." - Leighton Ford

Amanda Marshall
Hometown:
Monmouth, IL
Major:
Dramatic Arts/Interpersonal
Communications

Vision: "I would like to see SGA develop into an accessible form of communication between the students and the rest of the University and to see SGA be strong leaders working by serving the students we represent."

Qualifications: Freshman & Sophomore Rep., VP for Public Relations, All School Project and Constitutional Revisions Committees.

Favorite part of TNU: "The People!"

Favorite Quote: "Life is no brief candle to me. It is a sort of splendid torch which I have got a hold of for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it over to future generations." - George Bernard Shaw

VP Academic Life / Campus & Community Life

Carrie DeGeorge
Hometown:
Knoxville, TN
Major:
Psychology/Math

Vision: I want to see more people feel able to get involved and be able to use and show their many varied talents.

Qualifications: Academic Life Council, Sophomore Class Secretary, solid academic record.

Favorite Part of TNU: "I love being surrounded by people who have a lot to teach me, want to see me succeed, and who I care about and who care about me."

Attorney General / Executive Secretary

Shelly Cook
Hometown:
Snellville, GA
Major:
Communication

Vision: "Not just to do the job, but to do it completely and the best I can."

Qualifications: Freshman and Sophomore Rep.

Favorite part of TNU: "Dorm life, my roommate, the best friends, SGA, classes, choir, sports - everything!"

Favorite Quote: "Nothing is owed to me, everything is a gift from God." - Unknown

NIGHT OF JAZZ

1999 Junior / Senior Banquet
March 27 6:30pm - Pictures at 6pm
Union Station Hotel
Wednesday last day to buy tickets!

UP close Hope Richards

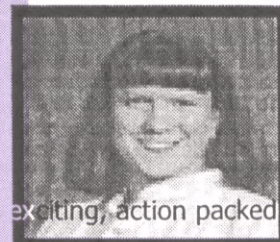

Sophomore majoring in Education
From: Spartanburg, South Carolina

Watching: U.S. Marshalls - "It was exciting, action packed and Wesley Snipes was in it."

Listening to: Dixie Chicks - "Their voices are unique - they bring a new sound to Country music."

If you were a car, what kind would you be and why?:

"A sport utility because they are universally known and can go anywhere and do anything."

Darda Editor

Kerri Roscoe
Hometown:
 Independence, OH
Major:
 Biology / Chemistry

Vision: "I want to ensure that all deadlines are met and that a memorable, quality publication is put out."

Qualifications: High School yearbook staff, TNU Darda Staff

Favorite part of TNU: "My friends...and the quality education."

Favorite Quote: "I have no response to that."

3THIRTYTHREE Editor

Jessica Tyler
Hometown:
 Charleston, WV
Major:
 Communication / Journalism

Vision: "I want to get more students involved and produce a paper that people get excited about and can be proud of."

Qualifications: Darda, Trevechoes, and 3THIRTYTHREE staff, Journalism student.

Favorite part of TNU: "Getting an education in a Christian environment."

Favorite Quote: "Do or do not - there is no 'try'." - Yoda

VP Public Relations

Joy Hinson
Hometown:
 Manchester, GA
Major:
 Music / Christian Education

Vision: "I would like to find more ways to improve or to help everyone know about every event happening at TNU."

Qualifications: Publicity committee - Capable in all types of publicity.

Favorite part of TNU: "The People!"

Favorite Quote: "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but consider others better than yourself."

Student Chaplain

Wesley Furlong
Hometown:
 Ft. Myers, FL
Major:
 Religion / Biblical Languages

Vision: "Building solidarity with the neighborhood through collective ministry opportunities. Strengthening FLOCKS, spiritual formation."

Qualifications: Current Student Chaplain

Favorite part of TNU: "I love the heart of Trevecca, which is the people and the mission statement."

Favorite Quote: "The idea which you en-throne in your heart, the vision you glorify in your mind, this you will build your life by...this you will become."

VP Intramurals (TIA)

David Rebello
Hometown:
 Baltimore, MD
Major:
 Physical Education / Sports Business

Vision: "70-75% student body participation in intramurals."

Qualifications: Intramural participant, TIA council, TIA statistician

Favorite part of TNU: "Christian friends and the influence and atmosphere they bring."

Favorite Quote: "Go where there is no path, and leave a trail."

Married Student Rep.

Chris Edsall

Hometown:
 Grand Rapids, MI
Major:
 Religion / Pastoral Ministries

Vision: "To hopefully get more married students involved in all school functions."

Qualifications: Married student, communication with outgoing rep.

Favorite part of TNU: "The fact that everyone supports each other."

Favorite Quote: "To be or not to be, that is the question." - Hamlet

VP Social Life

Kelvin Baker
Hometown:
 Bakersfield, CA
Major:
 Elementary Ed.

Vision: "My vision is to get as many people involved in all-school events as possible and also to allow for more events to take place."

Qualifications: Social Life Committee, Sophomore Class VP.

Favorite part of TNU: "I love the community and friendship. I also love my brother Rex."

Natalie Corwin
Hometown:
 Denver, CO
Major:
 Music Business

Vision: "To increase the number of social functions and their attendance. To provide entertaining events."

Qualifications: One year SGA experience, desire to be involved in the life of TNU.

Favorite part of TNU: "The smallness of our community and all my friends, known and unknown."

Favorite Quote: "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

Executive VP / VP Finance

Chad Wrye

Hometown:
 Macon, GA
Major:
 Business

ARTS & entertainment

Reviews

From Skankin' to Shakespeare

Buck
Buck
Tattoo Records

Andrew Bradley
Entertainment Writer

Christian ska for your Buck

Listen up all you Christian ska fans! There's a new guy on the block, or should I say six new guys. Tattoo Records has just added a rookie to the roster, and their name is Buck.

What's to be expected of this fresh new ska band out of Michigan? They follow in the tradition of secular bands such as Mighty Mighty Bosstones, and Reel Big Fish. They claim Christian influences such as FIF, The O.C. Supertones, and the Insyderz. They mix up a touch of reggae, a bit of punk, and hint of jazz and rap to create a whole bundle of third wave ska.

Buck has traveled for some time in the Great Lakes region. Their goal: to proclaim the Gospel to unbelievers and doubting Christians.

But what about their music? Buck lives up to their claim of following in the steps of bands such as the Supertones. The CD is strictly third wave. In layman's terms: it is similar to all Christian and radio-play ska.

The band finds its forte, however, in its swinging sound. They tease with a couple upbeat swing tracks, similar to bands such as The Royal Crown Revue. If you're not Nazarene, they might get you movin'.

The lyrics remain "fun" at best. Buck is unable to tap the point where ska meets scripture. They convey the gospel with lines such as:

Next came the preacher man, and said I don't think I can
I don't have the time
It's not such a heinous crime.

Buck's downfall is not their talent, but their lack of creativity. To the "un-ska-ed" ear, each track sounds the same. They do not pioneer any new ground in the way of ska or Christian music. They are not a "heinous crime" but it appears they can not quite fit the giant footprints of the bands that they attempt to follow. If they had of been on the front end of this ska movement, they might have created tracks of their own.

If you are real fan of Christian ska, you may be pleased with this new release. If you are a real fan of ska, prepare to be thoroughly disappointed. So walk - don't run - to the CD store for Buck. They'll be plenty left by the time you get there.

tnt
@tnu

Celebration choir

there's still time to get in on the last tnt opening celebration of the century:

REHEARSAL TIMES
Mar. 26 10:30-11:15am
Mar. 29 10:30-11:15am
Mar. 30 9-10pm
April 6, 7pm REQUIRED
(Dress Rehearsal)

Call Kim at ext. 1379 for more info.

These reviews are the opinions of the authors and in no way represent the positions of 3THIRTYTHREE, its editors, or the University. Questions or comments? Email 3THIRTYTHREE@trevecca.edu.

Shakespeare In Love
Miramax

Kerri Roscoe
Entertainment Coordinator

To see, or not to see... to that there is no question.

If you still have yet to see this movie, I would highly recommend doing so. Joseph Fiennes plays Shakespeare, who is in the midst of writing two great plays while struggling with writer's block. There is also a bit of competition between the Rose and the Curtain, 16th Century England's major theatre companies.

Gwyneth Paltrow steps in as Viola De Lesseps, a delightful muse for Will. She is trying to fight off an arranged marriage and finds herself intrigued by the theatre, creating for herself a male counterpart as whom she can enter the world of acting. This whole ordeal leads to a tumultuous affair with Will, but succeeds in changing "Romeo and Ethel, the Pirate's Daughter" to the great work "Romeo and Juliet."

Good direction and a strong supporting cast really finish this film off. The roles are well filled and each adds a little something to the movie. Floating from comedy to tragedy and back to comedy again, this film is definitely worth the theatre trip.

Timeless Appeal of Romeo & Juliet -time well spent

Destin Weishaar
Staff Writer

It is by far the most popular of Shakespeare's work, but what makes Romeo & Juliet so appealing? Dr. Janie McCauley, professor in the Dramatic Production Department of Bob Jones University, attempted to bring some insight to that question in the most recent Cultural Arts Forum, which was held on Saturday, March 20.

Through the comparison of different TV and movie versions of the play, Dr. McCauley pointed out how each different generation relates it to the current cultural and political climate. Clips from the productions helped prove her point. Sections were shown from a 1940's version, the popular version of the 60's, and a more recent BBC production.

Dr. McCauley also delved into the reasoning behind the play, discussing the question of why the main characters were "doomed". The forum showed that the story is not just a tale about young love, and encouraged the hearer to see the play in a different light the next time around.

For more information on Dr. McCauley's forum, or other upcoming music and cultural events, call the music office at extension 1288.

Reviews

- ✓✓✓✓ Skip exams for this
- ✓✓✓ Skip class for this
- ✓✓ Your call
- ✓ I'd rather be studying
- Not even check-worthy

Hey! Have you heard, seen, or tasted something you are just itching to review? 3THIRTYTHREE is always looking for reviewers for this section. email 3THIRTYTHREE@trevecca.edu if you're interested.

the BACK page opinions, editorials, and such...

Question of the Week:
Community at TNU: Fact or think again? email us!

Catwalk

Trust me...you're not hot

You're right, it might be getting a little warmer outside. The trees are beginning to bud, and there are a few flowers are beginning to wake up from their winter slumber...BECAUSE THEY ARE CONFUSED!! Remember what happens when this kind of weather hits. We're in Tennessee, people: fry today and freeze tomorrow.

Having said that, I just want to point out that it is WAY too early to be bringing back all of that summer stuff. I know that (If we allowed such filth) MTV is showing their perpetual loop of Spring Break '99 shows right now and you're probably enticed by the fact that people are lounging around in bathing suits, shorts, and such. But WAKE UP! Spring Break is over! This is not the SS Spring Break and honey, it ain't Jamaica, so cover yourself up before they ask you to audition for a Foxy Brown video.

That out of the way, let's move on to Spring fashion tips for the ladies. Key colors this season: cool whites and ice blues. This goes for everything from clothes to make-up. Ice is in, baby.

What is OUT is florals. They are just so "your grandma's curtain's". Let's try to stick to some solids this year. If you take my advice, you'll have less explaining to do when your kids pull out the old photo albums.

Now for the guys. I know that guys aren't supposed to care about fashion, and that we are so proud around here about "being ourselves" (whatever). Junior/Senior is coming up, however, and something needs to be said. You know those thrift store suits that we so like to wear with our tennis shoes? Let's let that march back to Salvation Army this year. You just can't pull it off. People are not thinking you look cool...they are looking for loose change to help you out.

Until next time, keep reaching for the stars... and make sure your belly doesn't show while doing so.

Walking & Talking: Pre-marriage seminar a success

Jessica Tyler

Feature Coordinator

On February 19 and 20, a workshop was held in TSAC for engaged and pre-engaged couples. "Talk Before You Walk" was designed for couples to learn more about marital issues that they would be facing. It was attended by eleven couples, and consisted of special speakers, activities, games, discussions, and refreshments, among many other things.

Jessica Downs and Tommy Middendorf, who were recently engaged, felt that the workshop was very beneficial because they got to be around other engaged couples who had the same concerns and issues that they did. They also appreciated the knowledgeable and helpfulness of the staff.

Melanie Moore and Brad Fink had similar thoughts. "Every speaker had insightful things to share from either years of experience in marriage or years of experience in counseling. The weekend confirmed many things for us and gave us a lot of good practical advice about things that we should talk about. We would encourage anyone to attend this, but particularly those of you in serious relationships who aren't yet engaged."

For more information on the Counseling Services available at TNU, call the Career & Counseling office @ ext. 1237

Let your voice be heard! 333 is looking for a creative and entertaining writer to do a bi-weekly column on the quirks and fun of life at TNU. Interested? Email us: 3THIRTYTHREE@trevecca.edu. Get involved!!

REAL WORLD 101

What is Real World 101? Real World is a group of forums which will help juniors and seniors to enter graduate school or to enter into the work force. These forums are sponsored by the Career and Counseling Center, the Senior class, and the Academic Life Council. If you have any questions, feel free to call Jan Harvey, x7702.

Tues., March 30 Budgets & Finance: Avoiding the Debt Trap
JSC 307, 6:30pm

Tues., April 6 Selling Yourself Professionally: Interviewing Protocol
Woodard Street Annex, Room 101, 6:30pm

Tues., April 13 Getting Into Grad School: Jumping Through the Hoops,
Woodard Street Annex, Room 101, 6:30pm

3 THIRTYTHREE
TNU Box 1646 - Nashville, TN 37210
(615) 248-1283 - FAX (615) 248-7728
email: 3Thirtythree@trevecca.edu

Volume 1, Issue 2
March 24-30, 1999

Staff & Contributors:

ASB Executive Council - Editorial Committee
Jessica Tyler - Feature Coordinator
Chad Wrye - Campus & Community Coordinator
Kerri Roscoe - Entertainment Coordinator
Alyssa Trajano - Layout/UpClose Coordinator
Amanda Marshall - Staff Writer
Destin Weishaar - Staff Writer
Josh Landen - Staff Writer

3 THIRTYTHREE is published by and for the students of Trevecca Nazarene University. The views expressed in 3 THIRTYTHREE are those of individual contributors and do not necessarily reflect those of the editors or those of the university. 3 THIRTYTHREE welcomes letters to the editor. For publication consideration, all letters must be signed and sent to 3 THIRTYTHREE, Box 1646. Contributions may be edited for grammar, spelling, or space considerations.